"THE SECRET SERVICE,"

THE FIELD,

THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE!

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

[ILLUSTRATED ENGLISH AND GERMAN.]

THIS work embraces the entire narrative of Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years travelling through the South, in the Secret Service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, East and West; his thrilling capture and confinement, for twenty months, in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey of near 400 miles aided by negroes and Union mountaineers. It abounds in stirring scenes, and contains more of the fact, incident and romance of the war than any other work which has yet appeared. One of the most interesting and exciting books ever published. Now ready in both English and German. Sold only by subscription. Address

THE ALMANAC, revised by

OLAN HIGHT.

New York Life Insurance Co.,

113 AND 114 BROADWAY.

THIS is one of the oldest institutions of the kind in America, having been chartered in 1841, and commenced business in May, 1845.

EVERY ONE SHOULD ENSURE.

While we live we may protect those dependent upon us; but when death severs the tie of all others most dear, it is a consolation to know that our prudence and foresight have made provision for the wants to which we can no longer minister; and the man who has the power, but neglects the opportunity, of providing in this way for the comfort and independence of his family, fails in the duty which he owes to them and himself. Therefore, let every one who has not obtained a policy of insurance upon his life, no longer neglect this imperative duty. GREAT CARE SHOULD BE MANIFESTED IN THE SELECTION OF A COMPANY. The

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Offers the following highly important essentials:

It is a strictly Mutual Company;
It has had Twenty Years' Business Experience;
It has large Accumulated Assets;
It gives Liberal Assistance in the Payment of Premiums;
Its Dividends are declared Annually;
It is prompt in the Payment of all Losses;

IN FACT,

Special care in the selection of its risks, strict economy, and a judicious investment of its funds, emphatically characterize the management of this company.

Assets over

$4,500,000.

Annual Dividend, January 1, 1865,

50 Per Cent.

Total Amount Returned Premiums (Dividends) paid

$1,700,000.

Total Amount Claims by Death paid,

$3,500,000.

During its existence it has issued

Over 36,000 Policies.

TEN-YEAR NON-FORFEITING POLICIES.

The New York Life Insurance Company originated, and was the first to bring before the public, the Ten-Year Non-Forfeiting Plan, which has so fully commended itself to the judgment of thinking men that it has become the most popular mode of insurance, and has greatly superceded the old method of lifelong premiums. It has received THE UNQUALIFIED APPROVAL OF THE BEST BUSINESS MEN OF THE LAND, large numbers of whom have taken out policies under it as an investment.

TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING PLAN.

A party ensuring by this table, after the second year, cannot forfeit any part of what has been paid in, and his policy becomes a source of income to him while living.

ANOTHER NEW FEATURE.

TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITURE ENDOWMENT POLICIES.

The New York Life Insurance Company have recently proposed A NEW TABLE, BY WHICH THE PREMIUMS CAN BE PAID IN TEN YEARS, AND THE NON-FORFEITURE BENEFIT ALSO SECURED. These policies are coming into general request. As a sure and profitable investment for one's declining years, they deserve the attention of all. A party ensuring by this table the amount received by the assured himself, upon his attaining a specified age, while full provision is made for death occurring prior thereto.

Policies Issued on all the Usual Forms.

AGAINST ACCIDENTS.

THE ORIGINAL

Travelers Insurance Co.,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

Capital, - - - $500,000.

Insures Against.

ACCIDENTS,

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

CAUSING LOSS OF LIFE OR BODILY INJURY.

THE TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY was organized, under a charter granted by the Connecticut Legislature of 1863, and amended by the Legislature of 1864, for the specific purpose of effecting INSURANCE AGAINST ACCIDENTS, of whatever kind or description, whether they occur in travelling by railroad, steamboat or stagecoach, walking in the street, at work in the shop, or sitting by the fireside, whether riding, boating, hunting, fishing, shooting, swimming, cricketing, surveying, engineering, whether working, or playing, sleeping or waking, in danger or out of it, apparently, danger, at home or abroad—in every variety of circumstances in which mankind are ordinarily placed.

A General Accident Policy not only includes the risk in travelling, but also all forms of dislocations, broken bones, ruptured tendons, sprains, concussions, crushings, bruises, cuts, stabs, gunshot wounds, poisons, drowning, burns and scalds, bites of dogs, unprovoked assaults by burglars, robbers or murderers—the action of lightning or sun stroke, the effects of explosions, chemicals, floods and earthquakes, suffocation by drowning or choking.

This company has now been for more than a year in successful operation, has issued over fifteen thousand policies, and paid numerous claims for compensation, has a directory of high character, and is managed with the prudence and sagacity which distinguish Hartford insurance companies; has an ample capital and large surplus, and its soundness and stability may be relied upon.

General Accident Risks.

TEN DOLLARS PREMIUM

Under a General Accident policy, will secure $10 per week compensation while disabled, (not exceeding twenty-six weeks,) or $2,000 in the event of death by accident.

TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS PREMIUM

Will secure $25 per week or $5,000 in case of death

FIFTY DOLLARS PREMIUM

Will secure $50 per week compensation, or $10,000 in case of death.

Any other sum, from $500 to $10,000, at proportionate rates.

Where compensation only is desired, or payment is to be made only in case of death, the rates are much lower.

☞ The above are the "ordinary" or lowest rates "special" rates are $1 per thousand higher.

THE SOUTH AND THE NEGRO. While in some parts of the South a good understanding appears to be growing up between the freedmen and their old master, in others the fell spirit of slavery interposes to render a satisfactory adjustment of the relations between the two races almost impossible. This is true to a lamentable extent in Mississippi, from which State very unfavorable accounts are received. A newspaper correspondent writing from Jackson, on the 9th inst., concerning the freedmen, says:

"I will not attempt to record or even enumerate the abuses of which I have knowledge. Whippings without mercy, tying up by the thumbs, beating with clubs, pounding with pistols, cutting with knives, shooting and in every way maltreating and sometimes murdering. This statement sounds harshly, but certified records will prove its dreadful truth. Still it would be safe to say that only a small minority of these cases are ever reported; and of all that are reported, the majority are lost sight of in the dusty files of official records. It is not my purpose to excite any undue ill-feeling toward Southern people, but will simply chronicle facts and leave every one to form his own conclusions."

The writer adds that the Freedmen's Bureau is shorn of its power, while the military, with its small and scattered garrisons, cannot afford adequate protection. As an illustration of the prevailing sentiment, a number of Federal soldiers have recently been killed by citizens, and the murderers have gone unpunished. In one instance the civil authorities refused to permit a military detail to arrest the murderers of a soldier, and by the time the detail was reinforced the culprits had been spirited away. A few weeks since an old man, a good, loyal citizen, who had been forced to leave the country on account of his Union sentiments, returned to his home near Bahalia. In a few days afterwards he was murdered, not for money or revenge, but simply for being a Union man. No one seemed to care. The civil authorities took no notice of the affair, there was not even a coroner's inquest.

In a recent address to the freedmen of Davison county, Tenn., Gov. Brownlow counseled them to attend school and learn to read, and to be mild and temperate toward the white people. He also advised the teachers to be exceedingly prudent and cautious, and do nothing offensive to the dominant party, adding:

"You may think it a little strange that I give such counsel. I do it because if Gen. Thomas were to take away his soldiers and pull up stakes and leave here, you would not be allowed to occupy this school room a week; and if Gen. Thomas and his military forces were to go away and leave us, the Legislature at the head of which I am placed would be broken up by a mob in forty-eight hours."

A Charleston correspondent of the Louisville Democrat (pro-slavery) complains that the negroes in South Carolina will not go to work, having a vague expectation that Congress intends to do something better for them. The following paragraph from his letter, showing his feeling toward the freedmen, perhaps furnishes a key to the unwillingness of the negroes to work for the whites, who probably have not yet made up their minds to treat them justly:

"Under the influence of the negro idiots and the teachings of the pestilent fellows of the Freedmen's Bureau, they have become so unfriendly as to desire to do no plantation work for the whites. Gov. Aiken recently went to his rice plantation, in the neighborhood, to make arrangements with the negroes there to plant the place. He was accompanied by an officer in the United States army to aid him in his efforts. The negroes, who used in former times to give their masters a most joyous welcome, now scowled on him, and, with one or two exceptions out of a gang of several hundred, declined to speak to him. They were impudent if any advice from him or his companion to go to work on very liberal terms, and plainly refused to work for the Governor or any white man."

From Texas we hear better accounts. The Houston Telegraph says:

"We notice large numbers of planters in town now-a-days, seeking freedmen for labor on their plantations. The freedmen seem to be glad to get back to plantation life again, and soon close contracts. A few months freedom in this city soon sickens the plantation negroes of the luxury, and they find that liberty is not what it has been represented to them. We learn that many planters are making preparations to plant large fields of cotton the present season, and are paying liberal wages to their laborers."

The Columbus (Ga.) Sun states that the planters in that vicinity have employed colored men to hire laborers for them with good results.

A letter from the Red River region of Louisiana says few of the negroes have as yet shown a disposition to work, least of all to enter into an engagement for any length of time. Under these circumstances planters are naturally disinclined to risk what they have left, and so will rest on their oars for a time. Some propose to go into stock raising. There is a scarcity of good cotton seed, even for what planting will be done.

MARINE LOSSES. It is stated in the Commercial Chronica that the total number of disasters in our marine for the year 1865, exceeds those of any year since 1854. Disasters have been reported at New York to 1490 vessels of all classes; about 500 of them were total losses. In 1861 the number of disasters were 953; 1862, 1010; 1863, 1308; 1864, 900. The amount of loss for 1865 is estimated at $20,000,000, distributed mostly between Boston, New York and Philadelphia underwriters. Nearly half of the loss, $9,975,000, occurred during the last three months, and is due in great part to the fires in cotton laden vessels. It is likely that the effect of the storms which have prevailed this month, will keep these great losses up to the average. This state of things has given an impetus to new inventions for saving life at sea, and it is said that a raft, composed of gutta percha cylinders, inclosed in canvas, and capable of inflation at pleasure, has been made with some favor.

An Irish theatre is to be erected in Sydney, Australia.

A Contract.

As the Hon. Joseph Howe of Nova Scotia made an eloquent speech in the Detroit Convention, in favor of the renewal of the Reciprocity Treaty, in which he professed very friendly feeling towards the United States, and as he is understood to be one of the delegates from the British Provinces, now pressing our government to renew the treaty, the following extract from one of the public journals of his own city, will be of peculiar interest just now to the people of the United States:

We fear that the feeling shown by Mr Howe, in his Manchester speech, is shared by a great majority of his fellow citizens of the British Provinces.

From the Halifax British Colonist, January 7, 1862.

Look on this Picture. HON. JOSEPH HOWE'S SPEECHES AT BOSTON JULY 4, 1858.

And on That. HON. JOSEPH HOWE'S SPEECHES NEAR MANCHESTER, ENG. 1861.

Mr Howe in respond- ing to the toast, "The Queen of Great Britain," said: Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen:—To be called upon on such an occasion to respond, in such a place, to such a toast, I regard as an honor a distinction—the highest ever conferred upon me. Indeed—the highest that can be conferred upon a British subject by the people of these States. Sir, as I have often related through New England, I have been pleased to mark how ancient prejudices have kneeled down before the angry passions excited by two wars have subsided, but I hardly expected to hear in old Faneuil Hall the health of any sovereign toasted on such a day, with so much genuine enthusiasm.

I have listened to the Declaration of Independence as I always do, not without emotions of various kinds, but with emotions similar to those with which I read our charter and Bill of Rights or any other eloquent protest against the injustice and barbarities of the past.

He did not know whether he (Mr. Howe) was sufficiently a Democrat to interest those present but for the last quarter of a century he had been fighting the battle of Democracy on the northern side of our boundary. Great Britain was striving to keep together her vast territory of colonies, scattered be- neath every clime in the world, and this he believed was the true Democracy striving to do for the United States of the Union. Americans would be mad and fatal fools, when Providence has cast their lot on this continent and had given them so many advantages, if they did not endeavor to keep this country together. Why, if they split, the monarchies of this country would discover them. * * * I wish you success with all my heart. You would be foolish and madmen, indeed, to call to this occasion, if in the possession of half a continent with boundless resources, with a glorious history to reflect upon, if from any want of skill or statesmanship you failed to preserve this Union. England, Ireland, and Scotland would despise you if your old British America, whose interests are involved in your success, would deeply regret the dissolution of this great confederacy.

I never come to Boston without feeling I am at home, for I find friends everywhere, and relations in a few. * * * I told you that my father was a Boston boy.

I shall it be said, then, that because an old fool like Lord North set us by the ears—that because the bad passions created by that first mad contest severed us in a second civil war, we are to fight again about an article, or that there can be any question of such magnitude as to turn back the great stream of our commerce through the straits, and set it cutting each other's throats. God forbid! Shall we fight to test our courage? It has been tested from Bendices to Bunker Hill. We know how you can fight, for we have tested your courage, sometimes to your cost. Your grandfathers and mine fought, and you beat us. I have to thank God that you did. * * * I would as soon think of Russian as a dog fight. I put him in gentlemanlike; but to slay an American would seem like committing a great crime, like a fratricide or murder. There can be no lawful war between the States. Such secrets as I have seem to pay assure me that we never will fight.

He (Mr. Howe) was English on both sides of the house, and they might well imagine how their speech- pitch that night affected him.

"They read in the Northern papers that the Southerners were a beggarly race of mean souls, with no pluck, no courage, no patriotism. But notwithstanding this, every time they fought the South licked them. * * * A Southern man, when told that the States to which they belonged were to be conquered, replied, 'You were four months marching thirty miles, and you run back in four hours!' Another reason why the South could not be conquered was because among the eight millions of white population, not a single southerner worked. They had nothing to do from year's end to year's end but hunt and shoot, and that was what they were doing now. (Laughter) the only difference being that instead of shooting squirrels, deer and raccoons, they were shooting Yankees! (Laughter and cheers.) * * * He believed the bulk of New York would join the New Dime from limb to limb before they would give them (Mason and Slidell) up, and he believed that the democratic influence of the Government was strong, that he did believe just though the demand might be, that they would not be given up. * * * The example of Russia had been quoted in this matter, (slavery) and what the Emperor had done was a speculation for all to admire.

THE TENNESSEE CONGRESSMEN. The Nashville Banner says Governor Brownlow has received a letter from Hon. Schuyler Colfax, in which Mr. Colfax declares that he is for the admission of the Tennessee representative on the ground that the State was organized during the war and before the close of hostilities, and also because it was the first State restored.

DEATH FROM HYDROPHOBIA. Nicholas Wyckoff, a well-known citizen of Queens county, aged 78 years, died at his residence in Middle Village, in the town of Newtown, New York, Thursday last, from the effects of hydrophobia. Mr. Wyckoff received the bite which proved fatal about three months ago and paid little attention to it. A rabid dog attacked him, while he was going from his barn to his residence, and only inflicted a very slight incision—This was cauterized very soon afterwards and healed up, without apparently affecting Mr. Wyckoff's health. Recently, however, symptoms of hydrophobia exhibited themselves, and all known remedies proved fruitless. The afflicted gentleman died in the most excruciating agony. The dog which inflicted the bite was shot shortly after the occurrence.

—When a wife begs her husband it is generally because she wants to get around him.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—Lady Herbert, a great-granddaughter of Lord Clive, is said to have the best collection of postage stamps in the world,—it containing every postal ever issued, and all of them unused. Every country is graced by the autograph and portrait of its ruler.

—Remember, madam, that you are the weaker vessel," said an irate husband.—"Exactly," said the lady, "but do not you forget that the weaker vessel may have the stronger spirit in it?"

—Among the funds in the hands of the corporation of London is the sum of two hundred pounds a year, left in trust "to burn heretics."

—A country doctor announces that he has changed his residence to the neighborhood of the churchyard, which he hopes may prove a convenience to his numerous patients.

—A ship captain was recently discharged from his commission in Liverpool for being drunk 11d consecutive days!

—Some of the women of Kansas have moralized the legislature of that State for the right of suffrage.

—"I have the best wife in the world," said a long-suffering husband, "she always strikes me with the soft end of the broom."

—A story is told of a lighthouse keeper who put out the lights at midnight, on the ground that he thought all the vessels ought to be in harbor before that time.

HAMPDEN ACADEMY.

THE SPRING TERM of this Institution will commence on MONDAY, Feb. 19, and continue eleven weeks, under the old Board of Instructors.

W. H. LAMBERT, A. B., Principal.

Miss RUTH BABCOCK, Preceptress.

Miss LIZZIE CROSBY, Teacher of Drawing, Painting, &c.

Miss CLARA C. HILL, Teacher of Music.

H. M. FOSS, Teacher of Penmanship.

This is one of the oldest Institutions of learning in the State—having been incorporated in 1803—and has constantly enjoyed a most deserved popularity which it is the effort of the present Instructors to sustain.

The Academy is pleasantly situated between the villages of Upper and Lower Hampden, on an elevated and healthful situation, sufficiently retired from the business parts of the villages to make it a very desirable place for study. The school rooms are commodious, and have of late been refitted in the most approved manner.

The villages of Hampden offer to Students resorting here, the various advantages of good society, several meetings of public worship, good boarding places, and very easy access from almost every quarter.

Boarding places can be secured, and further particulars had, on addressing the Principal.

Instruction will be eminently practical in such studies as Book-Keeping, Surveying, &c. The principles of the Natural Sciences will be suitably illustrated. Navigation, and the higher branches of Mathematics will be thoroughly taught, and those preparing to teach will receive especial attention.

Especial care will also be bestowed upon those pursuing the Ancient Languages preparatory to entering College or otherwise.

Those studying the Modern Languages will have the benefit of a most thorough and accomplished Teacher in that department.

As the Academy is provided with a well-furnished Laboratory, those pursuing the subject of Chemistry will here receive a most important advantage.

A well-selected Library of about six hundred volumes, is open to the use of Students, and furnishes valuable means for reading and reference.

MONETARY AFFAIRS.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Jan. 23.

The Sampson County Court arrested a negro on the charge of drawing a pistol on a white man, and sentenced him to be sold into servitude. Major Wyckersham, of the Freedmen's Bureau, of this district, ordered the Court and all parties concerned, to be placed under arrest.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.

Information has been received here that Richard H. Coolidge of the U. S. army died yesterday in North Carolina. Dr. Coolidge was son-in-law to Commodore Morris.

Wm J. Barden, a colored citizen of Colorado, telegraphs to Washington from Denver that negroes had the right of suffrage in that territory until 1864, when they were deprived of it by a law signed by Governor Evans, and that the admission of Colorado at this time would render this disfranchisement perpetual. He contradicts moreover the assertions made in the East that the enabling act had been complied with—more especially that part requiring the constitution to accord with the principles of the Declaration of Independence.

There has just been issued from the Government printing office a message of the President, communicating to the Senate information in regard to plans to induce immigration of dissatisfied citizens of the United States into Mexico, and especially in regard to the plans of Dr. Wm W Gwin and M F Maury. Notice of this document has heretofore been published.

The delegation appointed by the colored people of this District, Maryland, South Carolina, Florida, Mississippi, Illinois, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut, is at present in Washington, composed entirely of colored men, to urge equality before the law, for all American citizens, without regard to color. Having acted up to the present time, without organization, they met last evening and organized for concerted action. George A Downing, who represents the New England States, was elected President; Lewis H Douglass of Maryland, son of Frederick Douglass, Sec'y, and John Jones of Illinois, Treasurer.

At an interview to-day with Gen. Howard they expressed their views as opposed to colonization, in favor of the enlargement of the Freedmen's bureau, unqualified franchise for colored citizens.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.

Gen. Howard has received an official communication from Gen. Tillson, Assistant Commissioner for the District of Georgia, enclosing letters of Major Hastings and Mr. Davison, agents of the Bureau.

They say that in Decatur county the freedmen have gone to work with their former masters, and the latter feel greatly encouraged. In Mitchell county the white people seem to be as poor as the blacks, and the freedmen have nearly all left. In Baker and Dougherty counties there is a demand for freedmen and good wages can be obtained for from 300 to 500 hands. Planters there are in high spirits, and say the freedmen really act as if they were going to work. In Green and Oglethorpe counties the agent met with much opposition and discouragement at first, from both whites and blacks, owing to the obstinacy of the negroes and the careless and despondent disposition of the farmers; but, having called meetings of the freedmen at which the agent exhorted them to enter into contracts and also strenuously counselled them to cultivate good feelings, the result has been that nearly all are employed and doing well. Most of the farmers entered on the new year more cheerful and hopeful than they had anticipated. Contracts on large farms are generally made for a portion of the crop from one-fourth to one half, one third, however, being the usual rate.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.

The alleged privateer seized to-day was the steamer Metsor, built by Forbes at Boston. The seizure was made by Marshal Murray on information given by a member of the Mexican Legation at Washington.—The Metsor is of 1400 tons burthen, and is said to be capable of running 17 or 18 miles per hour. She is brig rigged, lies low in the water and is exceedingly strong, has 700 tons coal and ordinary ships stores on board, but no war material, though the vessel is in a proper condition to receive a full complement thereof. When seized the crew were preparing to get her into the stream preparatory to leaving port. She cleared for Penama. Application has been made to the United States District Attorney to accept bonds from her owners in order that she may proceed. Appraisers will have to be appointed to report on her value, and the United States District Court will then decide whether bonds will be taken and the vessel released. The Metsor was constructed from money subscribed by the merchants of Boston for the purpose of chasing the Alabama.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.

The Post says:

The merchant vessel alleged to be intended for Chilian services against Spain, cleared to-day. The clearance was granted after full investigation. The representatives of the Spanish Government here, furnished no evidence whatever against the vessel. She had no arms or other war material on board, and under our revenue laws, could not be detained after the clearance was granted.—The vessel was seized upon Spanish representations, and is now held under the authority of one of the U. S. officers in this city.

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 23.

The immense engine of the Utica Steam Cotton Mills fell to pieces this morning, the effect of which will be probably to stop the operations of the mill for the winter.

TROY, N. Y., Jan. 23.

A fire this afternoon destroyed four dwellings on North Fourth Street, and a bake shop and a barn.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.

The Commercial says—

Monetary affairs show a slight disposition towards a reaction from the extreme ease lately. Current bank statement, exclusive of the 3d national bank which was admitted into the Clearing House only last week, shows the following changes compared with last week—

Loans, increase $11,184,573; specie, decrease $1,627,572; circulation, increase, $574,112; deposits, decrease $1,046,343; legal tenders, decrease $1,121,941.

This makes a less favorable exhibit than was expected.

There is a perceptible increase in the demand for discounts, which is likely to still further augment. The growing stringency at the West must long draw money from the East. The spring business is just opening, and commission paper is consequently coming upon the market in increased volume.—An early demand must soon be felt for goods for the Southern market, which, bringing an additional element to what has been realized in the spring of the last four years, will perhaps produce a greater effect upon the money market than is anticipated.—Lenders now begin to interpret the signs as indicating that their large idle balances are not likely to remain much longer unemployed. This morning the demand for discount was so active that lenders have much less surplus for call loans, and some do not care to lend below six per cent., though the general rate on call is five. For prime bills the general average is seven per cent. with exceptions at 7½@8. Good names range at 9 per cent, and lower grades, including piles of jobbers' paper at 10@15. The discrimination against the lower class of paper is so severe that there is little prospect of any improper expansion of credit.

The tone of business at the stock board is strongly bearish; some leading stocks were attacked heavily, and prices fell on an average nearly 2 per cent. Michigan Southern declined 1 per cent. on sales of 5700 shares; Cleveland & Pittsburg was weak, and with moderate sales fell 4¼ cents, making a decline of 7½ from Saturday.

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.

At a meeting of the Montreal Board of Trade to-day, Mr. Young's resolution was discussed as to the necessity of making canal communication between the St. Lawrence and Lake Champlain. The Presidents of the Quebec and Toronto Boards of Trade. It was moved that the Welland Canal be enlarged to the same size as the St. Lawrence canals which was carried by a vote 4 to 1.

A resolution pointing out the necessity for the construction at some future time of the Conghawaga Canal was lost by a by a vote of 11 to 36.

The meeting seemed to be unanimous regarding the necessity of constructing the Ottawa Canal.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23.

The steamer Cuba is intended for the new line to run between Baltimore and New Orleans, touching at Havana.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.

The Savannah Herald of the 19th and 20th inst. have been received, containing the evidence of Union soldiers in the Mercer case, showing that they were told that if caught after deserting to the Union ranks, they would be shot, and that a drum-head court martial convicted those men who were shot, of conspiracy to escape, and that General Gilder knew nothing of the trial and execution until the execution was over. The case was concluded and submitted with the argument for the defense. The court came to a decision shortly after, and adjourned sine die. The findings have not yet been promulgated.

The Florida House of Representatives have passed a resolution of thanks to Gen'l Foster.

The Savannah cotton market was more active. Receipts of the week 7000 bales—Middling 48 a 48½c.

Two thousand barrels rice have arrived from Salt River.

Among the passengers from Savannah, by the steamer San Salvador, is S. W. Mason, editor of the Savannah Herald.

RALEIGH, Jan. 23.

The report of the commission appointed by the Provisional Governor in pursuance of a resolution of the convention to frame laws for the government of Freedmen was read to the House of Commons to-day.

It provides among many other things that freedmen shall testify in cases where one the rights of property or person is directly concerned, either criminally or civilly. By this means this class is protected against personal wrong and against violence, thefts and frauds on their persons and rights.

The report contains some 30 sections dedicated to freedmen, and besides this, eight bills affecting both the white and black population.

It recommends the establishment of a workhouse in each county for idle vagabonds and others who will not support their own offspring.

These provisions are without distinction of color. Many of the provisions are designed to encourage field laborers of all classes, white and black, by securing the rewards stipulated for labor, and to prevent and discourage all lawlessness over the lands of others.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 23.

The joint resolution in regard to the constitutional amendment were discussed in the Senate to-day, and passed by a vote of 13 yeas to 8 nays. The Senate has thus reversed the vote by which the bill was lost last year.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.

The Post has a report that the steamer Cuba, Capt. Sandbury, which sailed yesterday for Baltimore, is a Fenian privateer. The story is doubtless a canard.

CAIRO, Ill., Jan. 22.

Gen. Brisbin has been assigned to the command at Pine Bluff, Arkansas.

The 6th colored cavalry, under General Wade, has been sent from Helena to Duval's Bluff. The report of a mutiny in this regiment is a canard.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.

The Norwegian ship Hevea and the bark Scotland were in collision off Sandy Hook on Saturday night. The latter was dismasted and the former lost jibboom yards, sails, &c.

Returned—Ship Graham's Folly, hence for Glasgow, with rudder post lost, cargo shipped, leaky, pumps chocked and part of the crew disabled from exposure.

Spoken, 13th—Sch Angiene of Portland, from Newport for Baltimore short of water. The captain had been washed overboard. The vessel was supplied and headed for Abaco.

WHEELING, Va., Jan. 23.

The municipal election passed off quietly. Mayor Sweeney and the entire democratic ticket were re-elected.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 23.

Gov. Fenton has sent a message to the Assembly recommending an appropriation of $50,000 for the quarantine commissioners at New York for use towards averting the cholera.

Thirty-Ninth Congress.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.

Senate.

Mr. Sumner gave notice of a proviso for the bill for the admission of Colorado, that all persons shall be equal before the law, that no denial of elective or other rights shall be made on account of race or color, and that the Legislature shall declare the assent of the State to this fundamental condition, the President being authorized to proclaim the territory a State upon the official receipt of such legislative assent.

A protest of the citizens of St. Lawrence county against the renewal of the reciprocity treaty was referred.

Also the protest of the California Legislature against the sale of the mineral lands of the United States.

Mr. Wilson from the military committee, reported adversely on the joint resolution to authorize the sale of the government property at Point Lookout.

The bill to enlarge the Freedmen's Bureau was taken up.

Mr. Saulsbury spoke in opposition.

Mr. Fessenden followed.

Mr. Hendricks responded.

Messrs. Davis and Cresswell also made a few remarks.

Mr. Henderson offered a joint resolution prohibiting any State from withholding the elective franchise from colored citizens.

Adjourned.

House.

Resolutions were offered to the effect that that the doctrine of State rights strikes at the foundation of all Government, and that by their efforts to secede they destroy all their rights, and that the Government over the territory reverts to the United States, and all the territory of Texas under such rules ought to be set apart for colored people.

They were referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

The House resumed the consideration of the constitutional amendment reported yesterday, with regard to the basis of representation.

Mr. Stevens moved the previous question, but several gentlemen having protested that an amendment of this importance should not be thus forced through, he withdrew the demand.

Various gentlemen expressed their views as to the effect of the amendment.

Messrs. Orth of Indiana, and Sloan of Wisconsin, briefly explained an amendment they desired to offer, apportioning taxation from representation and basing the latter on suffrage.

Mr. Brooks of New York, made a few remarks, and caused to be read a petition from Susan B. Anthony, asking that the right of suffrage be given to women.

Mr. Stevens asked Mr. Brooks if he was in favor of it.

Mr. Brooks replied that he was if negroes were permitted to vote, as he preferred his own color and white women above negroes.

Here there was applause from the galleries, which the Speaker checked, saying that he would use the utmost means to preserve order and either approbation or disapprobation were alike censurable.

The amendment was debated, and the House without taking action, adjourned.

Reported for the Whig.

Legislature of Maine.

AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 23.

SENATE.

Read and assigned—An act authorizing the extension of a wharf into tide waters in the city of Rockland.

Mr. Boynton introduced a bill "An act relating to sixteen companies of volunteer military cadets, and amending an act concerning the militia," approved February 23, 1865."

The President read a letter from Hon. E. G. Dunn, certifying his acceptance of the office of Councillor.

Mr. Woodman presented a petition and bill to increase the powers of the Portland & Rochester R. R. Company, and both were referred to the Committee on Railroads, Ways and Bridges.

Mr. Abbott presented the petition of the Trustees of the East Maine Conference Seminary for State aid. Referred.

The Judiciary Committee reported back the order of inquiry in reference to prohibitory railroad tariffs, and it was referred to the Committee on Railroads, Ways and Bridges.

The Committee on Military Affairs reported back the petition of R. K. Campbell and others, in relation to surrender of soldiers' discharge papers, and it was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Passed to be engrossed—An act changing the name of the Lisbon Manufacturing Company.

Passed to be enacted—An act in addition to an act to incorporate the Rowel City Sugar Refining Company; an act to incorporate the Skowhegan Hall Association; an act additional to an act to incorporate the Portland Glass Company.

HOUSE.

Read and assigned—An act to incorporate the Androscoggin Land and Petroleum Company.

On motion of Mr. Bradbury of Hollis,

Ordered, That the Committee on the Reform School be directed to inquire into the expediency of repealing the several acts establishing the Reform School.

On motion of Mr. Foster of Waterville,

Ordered, That the Judiciary Committee inquire into the expediency of so amending section 23, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes as to enable the attaching creditor to perfect his lien in case the sale named in said section as made before said lien is lost by lapse of time.

On motion of Mr Jones of Lawiston,

Ordered that the committee on the judiciary be directed to inquire into the expediency of so amending the law in relation to the assessment of taxes as to require the assessors to take all schedules of property and statements relating to the same under oath or affirmation, and such other alterations as shall be necessary to a more just and equal appraisement and taxation.

On motion of Mr Page of Fort Kent,

Ordered, That the Committee on State Lands and Roads be directed to inquire into the condition of the settlements upon townships No 17, range 7, and if deemed advisable they may adopt a resolve authorizing the Land Agent to cause the remainder of said township to be located for settlement after the State shall have acquired a good and sufficient title to the undivided half now owned by proprietors.

Bill in relation to repairs of roads in unincorporated townships (House No 4) was read the third time.

Mr Sheldon of Lincoln, moved an amendment, that such roads shall be made whenever the County Commissioners are satisfied that such roads need repairs.—Adopted.

On motion of Mr Foster of Bangor, the bill was laid on the table.

Bill (House No 5) relating to lime and lime casks was read the third time.

Mr Newhall of Washington moved to amend so that the staves may be three-eighths of an inch instead of half an inch in thickness.

Mr Wilson of Rockland opposed the amendment. Half an inch was full thin enough for lime cask staves. He explained in regard to the reasons this bill was brought in and why the amendment should not prevail.

Mr Miller of Portland, moved to amend by striking out the second section, providing for the immediate operation of the law. He thought this section occurred altogether too frequently on public bills. The amendment was adopted and the bill passed to be engrossed.

Mr. Stevens of Augusta called up the report of the Judiciary Committee in relation to poll taxes, and moved that the report be recommitted with instructions to report a bill fixing the poll tax at an amount not exceeding two dollars.

Mr Stevens of Augusta made a speech in support of this motion.

Mr. Granger of Calais took the opposite ground.

Mr. Woodman of Bucksport favored recommitment.

The question was laid on the table.

Mr. Brown of Aampden moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the House yesterday passed to be engrossed bill to raise the salary of the Judge of Probate for the county of Hancock and further moved that that motion be laid on the table and to-morrow assigned for its consideration. The latter motion was agreed to.

Mr. Foster of Bangor rose to a question of privilege, to correct the statement of the gentleman from Portland that his colleague (Mr. Shepley) had introduced the subject of a change in the usury law. He himself had introduced the order on which this bill reported by the Committee on Mercantile Affairs and Insurance was based. He made this correction in order that he might have an opportunity to be heard on the subject when it comes up for discussion.

Mr. Otis of St. George moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the House this morning passed the bill relating to lime casks and further moved that that motion be laid on the table and to-morrow assigned for its further consideration. The latter motion was agreed to.

Adjourned.

Petitions presented and referred—An act additional to chapter 17 of the Revised Statutes; an act to provide in part for the expenditure of government; petition of R. Palmer and others, for incorporation as the New England Telegraph Company; of R. N. Pierce and others, for incorporation as the Rockland Lodge of F. and A. M., bill accompanyings of Lafayette Tuck and 62 others for appropriation in aid of road in township 2 range 3; of the Directors of the Portland Dry Dock Company, for amendment of charter; of overseers of poor of the city of Portland, for act in relation to foreign paupers; of Daniel White and others, for change of name of Annie E Steinorth; of Wm. Buxton and 7 others, of North Yarmouth, for set off from Cumberland to that town, and remonstrance of inhabitants of Cumberland against same; of Charles H. Chick, for change of name of Prentiss N. Black; of D. W. Dinsmore, for relief; of Glendy Moody and about 600 others, for a bridge near the site of the old Martin Point Bridge, and of Ezra Carter, Jr., and 600 others, in aid of same; of the Selectmen of Milford, for reimbursement; of Caroline A Edwards, for aid, and of N Abbott and Wm M Rust and others, in aid of same; resolves making an appropriation for a continuation of the Scientific Survey of the State.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

BURGLARY.—On Sunday night the residence of Frederic Drew, on the Hampden road was burglariously entered with false keys and ransacked thoroughly. Over fifty dollars in money was taken from under Mrs. Drew's pillow without awakening her or disturbing another lady she slept with. It is supposed that chloroform was administered, as the family were all indisposed in the morning. The rascals took only a few articles of clothing and the money. Gas was left burning in the dining-room, and the back door left open. It was a very bold robbery, and we hope the perpetrators may be brought to justice.

—The City Hall will be open on Thursday instead of to-day (Wednesday) for the ladies who are interested in making up garments for the destitute freedmen of the South. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

—We learn that Joseph Bartlett, Esq., Editor of the Jeffersonian, has been summoned before the Committee now investigating the frauds in paper credits, to give such evidence in the case as may be in his possession.

SUCH IS PAPER.—Our Exchanges state that Mayor Dole of Bangor lately presented the police with a sum of money.

LEVEE AT HAMPDEN.—The ladies of the Baptist Society hold their Annual Festival at the Town Hall to-morrow evening. Music, refreshments and other attractions will be presented. The excellence of the sleighing will undoubtedly induce many from this city to embrace this opportunity to have a fine ride, and also attend a pleasant levee.

THE FATHER OF A FAMILY.—The Boston Journal is told by a correspondent that Jos. Parker of Stoneham, Me., who is ninety years old, has a hundred and five grandchildren and great-grandchildren living. Six of his grandsons and three of his great-grandsons were in the Union army. Seven of them came home without having received a wound, one was wounded in the arm, and one belonging to the 15th Maine regiment was made prisoner at Richmond and died at Belle Isle. The old gentleman is hale and hearty.

GREAT FAIR.—It is proposed to hold a great fair in this city in behalf of the freedmen. It will be under the auspices of the Portland Freedmen's Aid Association, and will commence at City Hall February 26th, and continue one week. It is proposed to interest in the matter not only the people of Portland but of the entire State. Particulars are given in a circular in another column.—[Argus.

—The 8th Maine regiment arrived last evening, direct from Fortress Monroe. They were quartered at the post hospital where they were properly entertained and cared for. The regiment numbers on its rolls 283 enlisted men and 25 officers, and is under the command of Col. Wm. McArthur. The regiment was received with appropriate remarks by Col. Boynton, its former commander, and in behalf of the State by Adjutant Gen. Hodsdon.—[Augusta Cor. of Lewiston Journal.

FIRE.—The new and beautiful dwelling-house of John W. Dana, Esq., at Falmouth (fore side), was destroyed by fire on Sunday night, together with the adjoining out-buildings. A portion of the furniture and paintings, the library and plate were saved. The house was insured for $4000 at the Lorillard Co., New York, and the furniture, library, paintings, plate, &c., for $5,300 in the North American Co., New York, at the agency of J. E. Dow & Son in this city.—[Portland Press.

—As the special train containing the 8th Me. regiment was passing the Biddeford depot, an Monday, a young man, supposed to be a member of the regiment, jumped off the cars, bruising his head in a frightful manner. He was not discovered till nearly an hour after the train passed. He was alive at last accounts, but not expected to live.

LOOK OUT FOR COUNTERFEITS.—Counterfeit ten dollar bills on the Fall River Bank, Massachusetts, are plenty. They are well got up and calculated to deceive.

—Relics of the Penobscot Indians clad in mongrel Indian and Yankee garb, now sell baskets in our streets. They are all fond of white man's rum and gunpowder.—[Lewiston Journal.

—Among the arrivals yesterday was a gentlemen who spent the month of December in the State of Mississippi. He found more anti-secessionists there, he says, than he expected to, and he wonders how the State was got out of the Union. The feeling against Northern men was very strong, except in the river counties, and there are many places in which he believes a New Englander would not be safe, except near the military. He found the common people lamentably ignorant in respect to national affairs, and much more inclined to oppress the negroes and whites of their standing, than the large landholders. He was surprised to see so many idle blacks, but satisfied himself that not a few of them had been turned from the plantations since the fall crops were made.—[Wash. Cor. of Boston Advertiser.

—It is announced from Washington that there is to be no reduction of taxes. As the people expected no reduction they are not disappointed, and therefore they are blessed. The mildness with which Americans submit to taxation alike new and enormous, is even a more wonderful thing than the prodigious exertions they made during the war. So far as we can ascertain, there is not even a complaint made on the subject, though members of some interests may think they are unequally taxed,—and equal and exact taxation is no more possible of attainment than the philosopher's stone, or the elixir of life. There is, as it were, an heroic simplicity about the readiness with which taxation is submitted to, baffles all expectation, and shows how idle is the fear that repudiation ever could find friends in this part of the country.—[Boston Traveller.

—It is well known that hogs are killed by steam in Chicago. A great iron claw, with five fingers, hooks out the pigs which are quarreling in the pen below, and lifts them to a gibbet near by, and then plunges them into scalding water. By this machine fifty are killed, scalded, cleaned, split and hung in rows ready for salting, within an hour.

COTTON ON RED RIVER.—A letter from Red river to a New Orleans paper says that the river men think the cotton is mostly out of Red river from Shreveport down. Above the raft there is supposed to be yet a considerable quantity, as the river has been too low to admit of shipping, while at Shreveport there is thought to be some eight or nine thousand bales.

—A letter from Milledgeville, Georgia, says that if Alexander H. Stephens is pardoned, and will consent to take the place, he will be chosen one of the Senators from Georgia to Congress, and that Hon. Joshua Hill will be the other—the latter to have the long term.

—An old gentleman from the country stopped at a first class hotel in New York, and wrote home that his room was six stories high and his bill was three stories higher than his room.

—A gentleman travelling in Southern Pennsylvania reports a good story which he heard about a worthy mechanic who aspired to legislative honors. In his printed appeal to the voters he said, with more significance than he intended, "that if they declined to elect him, he should remain at home a cooper and an honest man!"

—The New Orleans Times, in an article printed on the 8th of January, gives the names of the Louisiana soldiers who took part in the great battle fifty years ago, and who still survive. Of the 576 members of Planche's battalion of New Orleans volunteers only 16 are living. Of Capt. Ogden's cavalry company, 40 strong, only two remain. Of Capt. Beale's company of riflemen, two also remain. Two members of other companies survive.

—The moral influence which the restoration of the Union continues to exercise in Europe is marvelous. Even the official organ of the Prussian government speaks of the success of American institutions. The London Times lauds every week something now to admire. It now urges England, by reference to the preparations made in the United States for the speedy payment of the national debt, to go and do likewise.

—The Postmaster General, during December, appointed 50 postmistresses.

TRACY'S

Patent Improved Gauge,

—FOR—

Hanging Gang Saws!

THESE GANG SAW GAUGES are superior to any other now in use. They save two thirds of the time over any of the old kinds, in changing, being made in sections varying from one fourth of an inch, to three inches, and can be varied to any desired dimensions with perfect accuracy.

THEY ARE CHEAPER AND MORE DURABLE than any other, give a better bearing upon the saws, holds them firmer; and in two months will pay their cost in time saved by changing, to say nothing of their convenience in being varied to any dimensions required.

State, County, and Town Rights for Sale.

For further particulars apply to the Inventor at Brewer Village, Maine, or Messrs PALMER & JOHNSON, and THOMAS N. EGERY, Exchange Street, Bangor. J. TRACY.

To Whom it May Concern.

THIS MAY CERTIFY that we have been using the past season, Tracy's Patent IMPROVED GAUGES, for hanging gang-saws, and do not hesitate to say that the time saved in changing gauges during one season, will doubly compensate for the expense. The gauges are so arranged in sections that they may be changed to any desirable thickness in a very few minutes, and with perfect correctness. They are very durable, not likely to get out of order, and hold the saws much firmer than the old kind of gauges. We recommend them to owners of gang mills as being a time and money saving invention. AMERICAN ORGANS

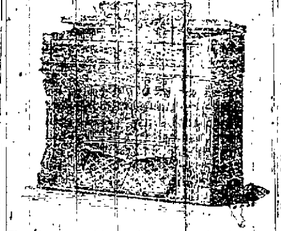
MANUFACTORY,

Tremont, opposite Waltham St.,

BOSTON, MASS.



The most perfect and beautiful Musical Instrument in the world for the American Home Circle.

THE AMERICAN ORGAN makes Home Attractive, and refines and elevates the minds of all. Beautiful in its appearance and effects.

Seventeen---17---First Premiums were awarded to the American Organs IN THE MONTH OF OCTOBER, 1865, over all Competitors, at different State and County Fairs.

First Premium awarded to the American Organs at the Great New York State Agricultural Fair at Rochester, September 1864, over the Whole catalogue exhibited by the most Celebrated Makers.

THE AMERICAN ORGANS are the ONLY REAL REED ORGANS now before the public.—The only Organ having a REVERBERATING SOUND BOX or WIND CHEST—which has the same important part to perform as the Sounding Board has in a Piano Forte (to give body and permanence of tone) and without which the Organ becomes merely a Melodeon in an Organ case. The American Organs not only have the Wind Chest, or Sound-Box but have the large Organ Bellows, giving power and great steadiness of tone. These with their extreme fine voicing of the Reeds and perfecting of the tone, make them the MOST PERFECT ORGAN KNOWN. Then, in finness of workmanship, finish of action, and case, they excel all others. These great improvements and superiority of tone and workmanship of the AMERICAN ORGANS place them in the first rank as the best, and command a higher price than any other reed instrument in the market. A careful examination of them in comparison with others, will quickly show their superiority.

Special attention is called to the style of AMERICAN ORGAN, No. 17, containing the Super-Octave Coupler and Sub-Bass. FOR CHURCHES in want of a powerful instrument, whose means are limited, its price renders it very desirable.

EVERY ORGAN IS WARRANTED TO PROVE SATISFACTORY.

THE AMERICAN ORGANS all have the Reverberating Sound Box, or Wind-Chest, and are finished in the highest style of art, in Rosewood, Jet Walnut, and Oak finish, richly Varnished and Polished, or in Smooth Oil Finish, forming elegant pieces of Furniture for the Parlor or Boudoir; and the Oak and Walnut especially adapted for Churches, Lecture and Lodge Rooms.

THE AMERICAN ORGANS are all finished with our new PATENT, improvement, containing the improved Knee Swell, Double Bellows, two Blow Peddls, and TREMOLO found in no other instrument.

BEST FUR FOR TROUBLE.

Work, work my boys, be not afraid,
Look labor boldly in the face;
Take off the hammer or the spade,
And blush not for your humble place.

There's glory in the shuttle's song—
There's triumph in the anvil's stroke;
There's merit in the brave and strong
While dig the mine or toil the oak.

The wind that barbs the sleeping lake,
And bids a ripple pure and fresh;
Or wafts the green boughs till they make
Their music in their leafy mesh.

And so the native breath of life—
Should it not stir dull and sluggard wills,
For are we not created rife
With health, and stagnant torpor kills?

I doubt if he who lolls his head,
Where idleness and plenty meet:
Reloys his pillow on the bread
As those who earn the meals they eat.

"GOOD AND BETTER."

A father sat by the chimney-post
On a winter's day enjoying a roast;
By his side a maiden young and fair,
A girl with a wealth of golden hair;
And she teased the father stern and cold
With a question of duty, trite and old:
"Say, father, what shall a maiden do,
When a man of merit comes to woo?
And father, what of this pain in my breast?
Married or single—which is the best?"

Then the sire of the maiden young and fair,
The girl of the wealth of golden hair,
He answers as every dad fathers cold,
To the question of trite and old:
"She who weddeth keeps God's letter;
She who wedeth not, doeth better."
Then meekly answered the maiden fair,
The girl with the wealth of golden hair,
"I will keep the sense of the Holy Letter,
Content to do WELL without doing BETTER."

A HUNDRED YEARS TO COME.

Who'll press for gold this crowded street?
A hundred years to come!
Who'll tread you church with willing feet
A hundred years to come!
Pale, trembling age and fiery youth,
And childhood with its brow of truth,
The rich and poor on land and sea:
Where will the mighty millions be.
A hundred years to come!

We all within our graves shall sleep,
A hundred years to come;
No living soul for us will weep,
A hundred years to come;
But other men our lands will till,
And other mouths them our streets will fill,
And other words will ring as gay,
And bright the sunshine as to-day,
A hundred years to come.

JOSH BILLINGS ON A LEKTURIN RAID.

I have just returned from the Stait ov Maine.

I went through the Stait endways.

That iz tew say from top to bottom.

I lektured as I went.

I like the inhabitants.

Everybody works in the Stait of Maine.

Gentleman of leizure thare are called loafers.

Maine is bounded jest now as follers:—

On the North by the land of the deserters, on the East by Asia, on the South by grate Atlantic salt water privilege and on the West by the Rocky Mountains.

The best productshuns ov the Stait iz men and wimmin. The wimmin hav more indigenous hair on their heads than you ken find in the whole by the Middle States.

Everybody goes to bed in the Stait ov Maine at 9 o'clock P. M.

I lektured at Gardiner—at 9 o'clock the aujence waz awl tew onst, and bidding me a fond farewell said it waz bedtime. I took the hint and stopt lekturin.

Bangor haz something less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, (about 75 thousands less, I belief.)

Bangor ain't the capital of the Stait at present. It haz the best tavern stand in the Stait. It is kalled the Bangor House, and iz kept bi Shaw. He and I are couzins by marriage, (we both married femails.)

Shaw iz a McClellan man, he haz got a hoss ov the same name of the male pursuashun who iz a grate deal faster than the General he waz named after, waz.

I lektured in Bangor.

The themometer waz 12 degrees less than zero, and the spectators couldn'd absorb the lektur. The mornin paper sed sum liked the lektur and some didn't. This put me in mind ov the parable in the Bible, about the 10 virgins, they waz affected in the same way, 5 waz wize and 5 waz otherwize.

The churches in Bangor in their outside appearance are a kompliment tew the cauze, and I hav'nt enny doubt but the stockholders are all of them eth proofe.

I waz taken around the town bi Mr. Shaw (mi couzin) in a denkle rig pulled by $10,000 worth of natural trotting property.

Bangor and its pleasant people are morticed into mi buzum,—they are tenants there for life. If I ever go there again I shant fail to see them.

I also lektured in Lewiston, saw a gushing house. Sum of the aujence waz effekted with tears. The editor of the next's days paper gave me a very flattering notiss,—a column and a half, containing the whole lektur.

Ed Sands (unkle tew the grate sassyparilla root Sands,) waz mi night bower, while I waz in the Stait ov Maine.

He is a general agent for the whole Stait. I kan reccommend him tew enny—young lady who wants tew get a husband that will be useful to her, or he would make a tip top sekund man for a widder who hadn't had a fair shake the fust time. He belongs to the temperance society.

I also lektured in Dexter, an inland town, about 15 hundred miles in a westerly direkshun from the sitty ov London.

I gave a free lektur, and tew mi surprise I had a full house. The hat was shoved around at the close of the services and about 300 dollars (more or less) waz entrapped.

This place was named after the selebrated trottin hoss Dexter. Dexter kan trot (in private) in 2.06. I will bet $60 of it (and I ain't much a cent tew bet) owing to a natural weakness.

I likewise lektured in Agestus, the capital of the Stait, and had a full house—ov bench-es. This waz owing tew a misunderstandigness about the weather.

The people offered to turn out if I would find umbrellas, but we split on the umbrellas.

I could not dew myself justiss at Augustus. There waht but one lady present in the hall and me and the audience waz all the time looking at her.

What an awful Stait ov things it would be if the wimmin and ladys should all taken out of this world, tew their hums up in the skize. Wooden dolls would advanse 5 foot in a week.—[Troy Sunday News.

THE FIRM A SECOND-HAND AFFAIR. There is nothing new under the sun. Some of these fine days, the human race, at present crawling on this globe will appreciate this fact. They will have the consolation then. They now fondly imagine that this earth was created for their especial accommodation, and that their ancestors came into possession of it when it was new. The fact of the matter is, that it is a miserable second hand affair, that has been occupied by dozens of sets of tenants, and has come into the possession of the race who at present live and move and have their being on its surface, in a shocking dilapidated and shaky condition. It will never be let again, after it passes out of the possession of the present tenants; it may be broken up for building materials used for other purposes, but it is far more probable that it will turn into a comet. Within the following [illegible] —[Consequently found] the Star Spangled Banner appears to be a restraint on conscience. The scientists discovery of a cannon-ball several feet below the surface [illegible] a greater astonishment to the [illegible] a small cigar, the lovers of which [illegible] [illegible]

A Story of Long Ago.

The long time ago of which I mean to tell was a wild night in March, during which, in a fisherman's hut, ashore, sat a young girl at her spinning-wheel and looked out on the dark driving clouds, and listened, trembling, to the wind and the sea. The morning light dawned at last. One boat that should have been riding on the troubled waves was missing, her father's boat; and half a mile from the cottage her father's body was washed upon the shore.

This happened fifty years ago, and fifty years is a long time in the life of a human being; fifty years is a long time to go on in such a course as the woman did of whom I am speaking. She watched her father's body, according to the custom of her people, till he was laid in the grave. Then she lay down on her bed and slept, and by night she got up and set a candle in her casement, as a beacon to the fishermen and a guide. She sat by the candle all night and trimmed it, and spun; then when the day dawned she went to bed and slept in the sunshine. So much as she spun before to buy her daily bread, she spun still, and put more to buy her nightly candle; and from that time till fifty, for fifty years, through youth, maturity, and old age, she turned night into day, and in the snow storms of winter, through driving mists, deceptive moonlight, and solemn darkness, that northern harbor has never once been without the light of her candle. How many lives she saved by this candle, or how many meals she won by it for the starving families of the boatmen, it is impossible to say; how many a dark night the fishermen, depending upon it, went fearlessly forth cannot now be told. There it stood, regular as a light-house, steady as a star and could make no. Always bright when day light waned, they had only to keep it constantly in view and they were safe; there was but one thing that could intercept it, and that was the Rock. However far they might have stretched out to sea, they had only to bear down straight for that lighted window, and they were sure of a safe entrance into the harbor.

Fifty years of life and labor—fifty years of sleeping in the sunshine—fifty years of watching and self-denial, and all to feed the flame and trim the wick of that one candle! But if we look upon the recorded lives of great men and just men and wise men, few of them can show fifty years of worth her, certainly not of more successful labor. Little, indeed, of the "midnight oil" consumed during the last half century so worthily deserved trimming. Happy woman—and but for the dreaded rock her great charity might never have been brought into exercise.

But what do the boatmen and the boatmen's wives think of this? Do they pay the woman? No, they are very poor; but poor or rich they know better than that. Do they thank her? No. Perhaps they think that thanks of theirs would be inadequate to express their obligations, or, perhaps long years have made the lighted casement so familiar that it is looked upon as a matter of course. Sometimes the fishermen lay fish at her threshold, and set a child to watch it for her till she wakes, sometimes their wives steal into her cottage, now she is getting old and spin a hank or two of thread for her while she slumbers; and they teach their children to pass her hut quietly, and not to sing and shout before her door, lest they should disturb her. That is all. Their thanks are not looked for—scarcely supposed to be due. Their grateful deeds are more than she expects and much as she desires.

How often in the far distance of my English home, I have awoke in a wild winter night, and while the wind and the storm were raging, have thought of that northern bay, with the waves dashing against the rock, and have pictured to myself the casement and the candle nursed by that bending, aged figure! How delighted to know that through her untiring charity the rock has long since lost more than half its terrors, and to consider that, curse though it may be to all besides, it has surely proved a blessing to one.

You, too, may perhaps think with advantage on the character of this woman, in contrast with the mission of the Rock. There are many degrees between them. Few, like the rock, stand up wholly to work ruin and destruction; few, like the woman, let their light shine so brightly for good. But some of the many degrees between them we must all most certainly belong—we all lean towards the woman or the rock. Of such characters you do well to speculate with me, for you have not been cheated into sympathy with ideal shipwreck or imaginary kindness. There is many a rock elsewhere as perilous as the one I have told you of—perhaps there are many such women; but for this one, whose story is before you, pray that her candle may burn a little longer, since this record of her charity is true.

—Jean Ingelow.

LIVE WITHIN YOUR MEANS. We don't like stinginess, we don't like economy when it comes down to rags and starvation. We have no sympathy with the notion that the poor man should pitch himself to a post and stand still, while the rest of the world moves forward. It is no man's duty to deny himself every amusement, every recreation, every comfort, that he may get rich. It is no man's duty to make an iceberg of himself, to shut his eyes and ears to the sufferings of his fellows, and deny himself the enjoyment of that result from generous actions, merely that he may hoard wealth for his heirs to quarrel about. But there is an economy which is every man's duty, and which it especially behooves him to practice who is contending with poverty—an economy which is consistent with happiness, and which must be practiced if the poor man would secure independence. It is a mistake to suppose that it becomes his duty to live within his means; not up to that within them. Wealth does not consist in the amount of a man's income, but in the proportion between his expenditure and his means. When it can be said of a man that he lives within his means, he stands on the vantage ground of economy and of financial comfort. He is free. It should be secured, not for much for others to think upon, but to think as in the estimation of others, as to secure the consciousness of independence.

DWINEL HOUSE,

E. W. HASEY & SON, - - Proprietors.

WE WOULD RESPECTFULLY invite the travelling community, who desire good fare and first rate accommodations, to give our house a call.

The Dwinel House is favorably located in the center of business; the rooms are large, well furnished, well lighted, and comfortable.

The TABLE will be supplied with such substantials and delicacies as the best markets afford.

Our STABLE is one of the best in the city—commodious, accessible and warm; and is attended by experienced and faithful Hostlers. It has a constant supply of pure water, and excellent hay, grown from our own farm.

The vegetables for the table, together with butter, milk, &c., are mainly furnished from our garden and dairy.

Hay scales, for weighing hay, straw, &c., in front of the stable.

A coach always in readiness to take passengers to the cars and boats.

As we are the sole lessees and managers of the house for a term of years, we shall do our best to make a comfortable and agreeable home for all, both in the city and country, as well as those visiting Bangor from Boston and other localities out of the State.

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated COMPOUND

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla.

For purifying the blood, removing all diseases arising from excess and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional diseases, arising from impure state of the blood, and especially relievable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Ulceration of the Throat & Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetter Eruptions, and all scaly eruptions of the skin.

And Beautifying the Complexion.

NOT A FEW

Of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruptions that accumulate in the blood. Of all discoveries that have been made to purge it out none can equal

HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND

Extract Sarsaparilla.

It cleanses and renovates the blood, instils the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of sufficient to show its effect, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing any thing they have ever taken.

Two table spoonsfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is full equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the Decoction as usually made.

THESE EXTRACTS HAVE BEEN ADMITTED TO USE IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY, and are also in very general use in all the State Hospitals and Public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land, as well as in private practice, and are considered as invaluable remedies.
